MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training and Education

FROM:

[REDACTED]
Director of SecuritySUBJECT: David Major Presentation - Request for Videotaping

1. The Office of Security, Security Education Group (OS/SEG) will sponsor a return of Special Agent David Major of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to the Headquarters Auditorium. He will give his presentation entitled "Hostile Intelligence Threat - A Walk Through Washington" to general Agency audiences on 12 January 1983 from 0900 to 1130 hours and again on 14 January 1983 from 1300 to 1530 hours.

2. It is requested that your office videotape the presentation on both days. SEG has had preliminary discussions with Mr. Frank Albanese of the Media Productions Branch who has already informally agreed to videotape. He has requested the following information for technical purposes. Special Agent Major will be introduced by the Chief, Security Education Group, however, this portion should not be videotaped. The speaker will give a short introduction and will then show a five-minute (approximate) videotape. Monologue will follow and the speaker will then play a two-minute (approximate) audio tape. The entire presentation is supplemented by use of slides. It is classified at the Secret level and the authorizing number is [REDACTED]

3. [REDACTED] is the SEG contact. He can be contacted on extension [REDACTED] if there are questions or if additional information is required.
